1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 Court-appointed Class Plaintiffs Brayton Li and Donald Hu respectfully submit 3 this memorandum of points and authorities in support of their Motion, pursuant to 4 Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, for final approval of the proposed 5 Settlement, and approval of the proposed Plan of Allocation of the Net Settlement
 6 Fund to the Class.¹

7 The proposed Settlement provides for a $12 million cash payment to the Class
 8 in consideration for resolving all claims alleged in this Action against all Defendants.
 9 The $12 million Settlement is an extraordinary result in light of the significant risks 10 in the Action. After evaluating the facts, applicable law, and risks and expense of 11 continuing litigation, and the factors discussed herein, Class Plaintiffs and Class 12 Counsel believe this Settlement provides a favorable recovery and is in the best 13 interests of the Class. The Settlement was reached after an extensive investigation by 14 Class Counsel; full briefing on motions to dismiss the Consolidated Amended Class 15 Action Complaint and the Third Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint; 16 comprehensive discovery, including review and analysis of over 140,000 pages of 17 documents and seven depositions, including the depositions of the Class Plaintiffs; 18 contentious class certification motion practice and briefing, including the briefing of 19 Defendants' Petition for Permission to Appeal Class Certification under Federal Rule 20 of Civil Procedure 23(f); consultation with experts; and, months of extensive arm's-21 length settlement negotiations between highly experienced counsel and an in-person 22 mediation before Robert Meyer, Esq., an experienced mediator.

23 Moreover, as of April 2, 2019, Class Plaintiffs have not received any 24 objections to the proposed Settlement, and no putative class members have requested 25

 27 ¹ Unless otherwise noted, all capitalized terms defined herein shall have the same 28 meanings ascribed to them in the Stipulation (ECF No. 173-1) or the Joint Declaration, filed herewith. Citations to "¶" herein refer to paragraphs in the Joint Declaration.

1 to be excluded from the proposed Settlement, strongly demonstrating that the Class 2 believes the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

3 For the reasons discussed below, Class Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe 4 that the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of the Class and is fair, 5 reasonable, and adequate. It satisfies the requirements under Rule 23 of the Federal 6 Rules of Civil Procedure and provides a significant recovery for the Class.
7 Accordingly, Class Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant final approval 8 of the Settlement.

9 Class Plaintiffs also request that the Court approve the proposed Plan of 10 Allocation of Net Settlement Fund, as set forth in the Notice distributed to the Class 11 in accordance with this Court’s Preliminary Approval Order (ECF No. 177). The 12 Plan of Allocation governs how Class Members’ claims will be calculated and, 13 ultimately, how money will be distributed to valid claimants. The Plan of Allocation 14 fairly distributes the Net Settlement Fund in accordance with the remaining claims in 15 this litigation, providing each Class Member who files a valid claim a pro rata share 16 based upon his or her recognized loss. It is substantively similar to plans that have 17 been approved and used to allocate recoveries in other securities class actions. The 18 Plan of Allocation is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be approved.

19 I. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

20 This is a federal securities class action for violations of Sections 11 and 15 of 21 the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) against Defendants NantKwest, Inc., 22 Patrick Soon-Shiong (“Soon-Shiong”), Richard Gomberg, Barry J. Simon, Steve 23 Gorlin, Michael D. Blaszyck, Henry Ji, Richard Kusserow, John T. John T. Potts, Jr., 24 Robert Rosen, and John C. Thomas Jr., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith 25 Incorporated, Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Jefferies LLC, Piper Jaffray & Co., and 26 MLV & Co., LLC (collectively, “Defendants”). ¶¶ 3, 24. Class Plaintiffs allege that 27 Defendants failed to disclose material information in NantKwest’s Registration 28

1 Statement in connection with its initial public offering of stock, rendering that 2 Registration Statement materially false and misleading. ¶¶ 24-26. Specifically, the 3 Registration Statement failed to disclose: (1) that on May 8, 2015 NantKwest had 4 funneled more than $100 million in additional compensation to Soon-Shiong by 5 modifying warrant terms to include a massive so-called “performance milestone” that 6 was already virtually certain to be achieved, and, therefore, NantKwest incurred a 7 similar amount of compensation expense at that time; (2) that effective May 2015 8 NantKwest had engaged in a related-party facilities lease arrangement (“Related-9 Party Lease”) with NantWorks LLC, a company owned by Soon-Shiong, pursuant to 10 which NantKwest had incurred millions of dollars of liability prior to the time of the 11 IPO; and (3) the full extent of material weaknesses in the Company’s internal 12 controls. ¶ 26. By omitting this material information, on July 28, 2015, Defendants 13 were able to successfully raise over $225 million in net proceeds in the IPO. Id.

14 Beginning on March 22, 2016, two actions were filed in the United States
 15 District Court for the Central District of California alleging violations of Sections 16 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”):
 17 (1) Sundunagunta v. NantKwest, Inc., No. 16-cv-01947-MWF-JEM; and (2) Forsythe 18 v. NantKwest, Inc., No. 16-cv-03448-MWF-JEM. ¶ 27. Four additional actions were 19 filed in California state court and removed to the United States District Court for the 20 Central District of California (the “Removed Actions”): (1) Wagner v. NantKwest,
 21 Inc., No. 16-cv-06703-MWF-JEM; (2) Hare v. NantKwest, Inc., No. 16-cv-06697-22 MWF-JEM; (3) Wienczek v. NantKwest, Inc., No. 16-cv-06705-MWF-JEM; and, 23 (4) Frye v. NantKwest, Inc., 16-cv -06700-MWF-JEM. ¶ 29. On June 3, 2016, the 24 Court ordered the two federal actions consolidated, appointing Class Plaintiffs as 25 Lead Plaintiffs, the law firms of Pomerantz LLP and Bragar Eagel & Squire, P.C. as 26 Co-Lead Counsel, and Glancy, Prongay, & Murray LLP as Liaison Counsel. ¶ 27.
 27
 28

1 On October 11, 2016, the Court consolidated the four Removed Actions into this 2 Action. ¶ 29.

3 On August 4, 2016, Class Plaintiffs filed a Consolidated Amended Class
4 Action Complaint based on extensive investigation and analysis of Class Counsel 5 which included, inter alia, a review of Defendants' public documents, filings with the 6 U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), wire and press releases 7 published by, and regarding, NantKwest, and analysts' reports and advisories about 8 the Company. ¶ 30.

9 Defendants moved to dismiss the Consolidated Amended Class Action
10 Complaint on October 6, 2016, which Class Plaintiffs opposed. ¶ 31. The Court 11 issued an order on May 16, 2017 granting in part and denying in part Defendants' 12 motion to dismiss. Id. Class Plaintiffs filed the Second Consolidated Amended Class 13 Action Complaint on June 5, 2017, followed by the Third Consolidated Amended 14 Class Action Complaint on July 10, 2017. ¶¶ 32, 33. On July 31, 2017, Defendants 15 moved to dismiss the Third Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint, which 16 Class Plaintiffs opposed. ¶ 33. The Court denied Defendants' motion to dismiss in 17 its entirety on September 20, 2017. Id.

18 Following the Court's September 20, 2017 order, the parties engaged in 19 extensive discovery, which included: issuance of interrogatories and requests for 20 production to Defendants and third-parties; responses to interrogatories and requests 21 of production from Defendants; review and analysis of over 140,000 pages of 22 documents from Defendants and third-parties; and the depositions of: (a) NantKwest 23 executive Charles Kim, who played a major role in the Celgene negotiations; (b) John 24 Thomas, Jr., a NantKwest board member and audit committee member; (c) Sean 25 Clayton of Cooley LLP, who led much of the due diligence that the underwriter 26 defendants conducted for the NantKwest IPO; (d) two senior members of the audit

1 team from NantKwest's auditor, Mayer Hoffman McCann, P.C., Jacqueline Dale and 2 Steve Fanuchi; and (e) both Class Plaintiffs. ¶¶ 34-36.

3 On April 2, 2018, Class Plaintiffs moved to withdraw from the Third
4 Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint claims brought under the Exchange
5 Act for lack of sufficient evidence of market efficiency necessary to support 6 certification of those claims, and moved for class certification with respect to the 7 remaining claims brought under the Securities Act. ¶ 37. On August 13, 2018, the 8 Court entered an Order permitting Class Plaintiffs to withdraw claims brought under 9 the Exchange Act, granting leave to file a fourth amended complaint consisting solely 10 of the remaining Securities Act claims, granting certification of the Class, and 11 appointing Lead Plaintiffs to serve as Class Plaintiffs and their counsel of record to 12 serve as Class Counsel. ¶ 38. Class Plaintiffs filed the Fourth Consolidated 13 Amended Class Action Complaint on August 24, 2018. ¶ 39.

14 On August 27, 2018, Defendants filed with the United States Court of Appeals 15 for the Ninth Circuit a petition for permission to appeal the Court's August 13, 2018 16 Order granting class certification. Id. The Underwriter Defendants joined in that 17 petition. Id. Class Plaintiffs filed an Opposition to Defendants petition on September 18 6, 2018. Id.

19 II. THE SETTLEMENT

20 The Parties entered into good faith, arm's-length negotiation after the Court 21 sustained the Third Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint, and following 22 substantial discovery. ¶ 40. On March 14, 2018, the Parties participated in an in-23 person mediation before Robert Meyer, Esq., an experienced mediator specializing in 24 complex litigation. ¶ 41. Counsel for all parties were present at the mediation, as 25 well as counsel for insurers. Id. The Parties did not reach agreement at this 26 mediation session, but continued to negotiate with Mr. Meyer's assistance. After 27 several additional rounds of negotiation, Mr. Meyer made a mediator's proposal to all 28

1 Parties on September 7, 2018 recommending the settlement of the Action for $12
2 million. ¶¶ 41-42. The Parties accepted the mediator's proposal on September 14, 3 2018, and filed the Joint Notice of Settlement on September 24, 2018. ECF No. 169.
4 The next day, on September 25, 2018, the Parties executed a binding Memorandum 5 of Understanding ("MOU"). ¶ 42.

6 Subsequently, the Parties negotiated a Stipulation more fully documenting the 7 Settlement, and prepared class notice, summary notice, claim form, and proposed 8 orders for preliminary approval and final approval and entering final judgment. Id.
9 The Parties finalized and executed the Stipulation on October 31, 2018. ECF No.
10 173-1.

11 III. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL AND DISSEMINATION OF NOTICE

12 On January 9, 2019, the Court issued an Order granting preliminary approval 13 of the proposed Settlement and directing dissemination of notice to Class Members 14 (the "Preliminary Approval Order"). ECF No. 177. Since the Preliminary Approval 15 Order, the settlement administrator, JND Legal Administration ("JND" or the 16 "Settlement Administrator"), has published notice and disseminated 25,375 copies of 17 the Notice and the Proof of Claim and Release (the "Notice Packet"). See, 18 Declaration of Luiggy Segura (the "Segura Decl.") ¶ 11 (attached as Exhibit 1 to the 19 Joint Declaration). In addition, since January 28, 2019 and January 29, 2019, 20 respectively, the Settlement Administrator has been operating a settlement website as 21 well as a toll-free telephone number with a live operator during regular business 22 hours dedicated to fielding calls and questions from NantKwest shareholders. Segura 23 Decl. at ¶¶ 13, 14. The website provides potential Class Members with the pertinent 24 deadlines of the settlement proceeding (i.e., deadlines to request exclusion, object, 25 and submit claims) as well as all pertinent settlement documents (i.e., the Preliminary 26 Approval Order, Notice Packet, and Summary Notice). Id. at ¶ 14.

27
28

1 As of April 2, 2019, JND has not received a single request for exclusion from 2 the Settlement. Segura Decl. at ¶ 16.

3 IV. THE NOTICE TO THE SETTLEMENT CLASS WAS ADEQUATE

4 The Notice of the proposed Settlement to the Class Members satisfied the 5 requirements of Rules 23(c)(2) and 23(e), as well as requirements under the Private 6 Securities Litigation Reform Act (“PSLRA”), and the Due Process Clause of the 7 United States Constitution. Due process and Rule 23(c)(2) direct that the notice be 8 “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances” (Fed. R. Civ. P.
9 23(c)(2)(B)), and Rule 23(e) directs “notice in a reasonable manner” (Fed. R. Civ. P.
10 23(e)(1)). “[D]ue process requires a reasonable effort to inform affected class 11 members through individual notice, not receipt of individual notice.” *Rannis v.
12 Recchia*, 380 Fed. App’x 646, 650 (9th Cir. 2010). Notice must be “reasonably 13 calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of 14 the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Klee v. Nissan 15 N. Am., Inc., NO. CV 12-08238 AWT (PJWx), 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 88720, at *15-16 (C.D. Cal. Jul. 7, 2015) (quoting Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339
17 U.S. 306, 314 (1950)); Churchill Vill., L.L.C. v. GE, 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir.
18 2004) (“Notice is satisfactory if it ‘generally describes the terms of the settlement in 19 sufficient detail to alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate and to come 20 forward and be heard.’”) (quoting Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc., 396 F.3d 21 96, 113 (2d Cir. 2005)).

22 Here, the Notice provides the required information as it includes, inter alia:
23 (1) the reasons for and material terms of the Settlement; (2) informs Class Members 24 that they may appear through counsel; (3) the time and manner for requesting an

1 V. THE SETTLEMENT WARRANTS FINAL APPROVAL

2 A. Standard

3 Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e), “[t]he court must approve any 4 settlement, voluntary dismissal, or compromise of the claims, issues, or defenses.” 5 As noted by both the Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit, in determining the 6 fairness of a settlement, courts should “not decide the final merits of the case or 7 resolve unsettled legal questions.” Carson v. Am. Brands, 450 U.S. 79, 88 n.14
8 (1981); Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982) 9 (the settlement hearing “is not to be turned into a trial or rehearsal for trial on the 10 merits” and the court need not “reach any ultimate conclusions on the contested 11 issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, for it is the very 12 uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation 13 that induce consensual settlements.”).

14 There is “a strong judicial policy that favors settlements, particularly where 15 complex class action litigation is concerned.” In re Synacor ERISA Litig., 516 F.3d 16 1095, 1101 (9th Cir. 2008); Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625 (“voluntary 17 conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution”); Nissan, 18 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 88720, at *17-18 (same).

19 Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allows courts to approve a 20 proposed class action settlement only if it is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The 21 Ninth Circuit has directed courts to consider the following factors in making fairness 22 determinations: “the strength of the plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity, 23 and likely duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining a class action status 24 throughout the trial; the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery 25 completed and the stage of the proceedings; the experience and views of counsel; . . .
26 and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” In re Mego Fin.
27 Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 458 (9th Cir. 2000) (quoting Hanlon v. Chrysler 28

1 Corp., 150 F.3d 1101, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998)); see also In re NetSol Techs., 2016 U.S.
2 Dist. LEXIS 193924, at *24.

3 A recent amendment to Rule 23, effective December 1, 2018, added four 4 factors for a court to consider in determining fairness. These factors include whether: 5 “(A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the 6 class; (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s-length; (C) the relief provided for the 7 class was adequate, taking into account: (i) the cost, risks, and delay of trial and 8 appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the 9 class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of any 10 proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any 11 agreement required to be identified under Rule 23 (e)(3); and (D) the proposal treats 12 class members equitably relative to each other.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). Most of 13 these factors are already covered under the Ninth Circuit factors. See Hefler v. Wells 14 Fargo & Co., 16-cv-05479-JST, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 213045, at *13-14 (N.D. Cal.
15 Dec. 18, 2018) (applying new factors under Rule 23(e) “while continuing to draw 16 guidance from the Ninth Circuit’s factors and relevant precedent”). As noted by the 17 Hefler court, “[t]he Court bears in mind . . . the Advisory Committee’s instruction not 18 to let ‘[t]he sheer number of factors . . . distract both the court and the parties from 19 the central concerns that bear on review under Rule 23(e)(2).’” Id. at *14 (quoting 20 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2) advisory committee’s note to 2018 amendment).

21 “It is the settlement taken as a whole, rather than the individual component 22 parts, that must be examined for overall fairness. . . . The settlement must stand or 23 fall in its entirety.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026 (citing Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 24 628, 630). “[T]he court’s intrusion upon what is otherwise a private consensual 25 agreement negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent 26 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud 27 or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the 28

1 settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.”
2 Officers of Justice, 688 F.2d at 625.

3 In light of the considerations discussed herein, Class Plaintiffs and Class 4 Counsel submit that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, satisfies the 5 standards of Rule 23, and provides a significant recovery for the Class. Class 6 Plaintiffs accordingly respectfully request that the Court grant final approval of the 7 Settlement and deem the Plan of Allocation, set forth in the mailed Notice, to be a fair
8 and reasonable method for distributing the Net Settlement Fund to eligible Class 9 Members.

10 B. The Settlement Meets the Ninth Circuit Standards for Approval and 11 the Factors Enumerated in Rule 23(e)(2)

12 1. The Settlement Process Was Procedurally Fair
13 a. Adequate Representation of the Class

14 Class Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have already been determined to be 15 adequate representatives of the Class. See ECF No. 160 at 12-13. They have 16 zealously pursued the Class’s interest throughout this litigation. Prior to settlement 17 negotiations, Class Plaintiffs and Class Counsel conducted an extensive review of all 18 relevant public filings and other publicly-available information for NantKwest; 19 prepared the Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint, the Second 20 Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint, and the Third Consolidated 21 Amended Class Action Complaint; briefed Defendants’ motions to dismiss the 22 Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint and the Third Consolidated
23 Amended Class Action Complaint; consulted with experts; and conducted substantial 24 discovery, including reviewing documents produced by Defendants and third parties, 25 and taking or defending depositions. See Section I.; see also ¶¶ 5, 30-42. Thus, Class 26 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel were sufficiently informed of the case’s strengths and 27 weaknesses, enabling them to appropriately evaluate the proposed Settlement’s 28

1 fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy. See In re Mego Fin. Corp., 213 F. 3d at 459
2 (noting that even though “extensive formal discovery” was not completed, counsel 3 had “sufficient information to make an informed decision”).

4 Furthermore, the interests of the Class Plaintiffs are not in conflict with those 5 of the Class. Class Plaintiffs and the Class Members all purchased shares of 6 NantKwest securities based on the same materially false and misleading statements or 7 omissions made by Defendants, were damaged as a result, and have an interest in 8 obtaining the largest recovery possible. See In re Symbol Techs., Inc. Sec. Litig., 05-9 CV-3923 (DRH) (AKT), 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 82756, at *19 (E.D.N.Y. June 25, 10 2015) (“where, as here, the alleged frauds ‘are brought under the same causes of 11 action’ and ‘where [the] frauds resulted from misinformation disseminated in 12 financial statements, the Court does not find a class conflict’”) (citation omitted).

13 b. Arm’s-Length Negotiations

14 The Settlement is the result of vigorously-disputed arm’s-length negotiations 15 that took place over several months between parties knowledgeable about the facts 16 and risks of this litigation. The negotiations began with a mediation before an 17 experienced mediator, Robert Meyer, Esq., which included an exchange of detailed 18 mediation statements. ¶¶ 5, 40. After an in-person mediation session was not 19 successful, the Parties engaged in several rounds of additional telephonic and written 20 discussions with the assistance of the mediator. ¶¶ 40-41. Following the acceptance 21 of the mediator’s proposal, the Parties negotiated an MOU, then ultimately, the 22 Stipulation.

23 Courts in the Ninth Circuit recognize that settlements reached after arm’s-24 length negotiations between experienced counsel, with the help of an experienced 25 mediator, are afforded a presumption of fairness. See City of San Diego v. Nat'l Steel 26 & Shipbuilding Co., NO. 09cv2275 WQH (BGS), 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 53078, at 27 *35 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 21, 2015) (“a presumption of fairness arises where” a settlement 28

1 involves experienced counsel, was reached through arm's length negotiations, and 2 "investigation and discovery are sufficient") (citation omitted); Roberti v. OSI Sys., Inc., CV-13-09174 MWF (MRW), 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 164312, at *9 (C.D. Cal.
3 Dec. 8, 2015) ("The involvement of experienced class action counsel and the fact 4 that the settlement agreement was reached in arm's length negotiations, after relevant 5 discovery had taken place create a presumption that the agreement is fair.")
6 (quotation omitted). Here, Class Counsel are nationally-recognized law firms 7 experienced in securities litigation and class actions. See Section V.B.2.e.; ¶¶ 58-59, 8 71. Settling Defendants are also represented by prominent, experienced law firms.
9 ¶¶ 59, 73.

10 In addition, "[t]he assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement 11 process confirms the settlement is non-collusive." OSI Sys., Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist.
12 LEXIS 164312, at *10 (quotation omitted); see also ECF No. 177 at 7 ("The fact that 13 the parties utilized an experienced mediator to reach the settlement agreement 14 supports the notion that it was the product of arms-length negotiation.").
15 Accordingly, the Court's preliminary finding that the Class "is represented by 16 experienced counsel who engaged in meaningful discovery and motion practice while 17 pursuing arms-length settlement negotiations" is correct.
18

19 2. The Settlement Is Substantively Fair

20 a. Strength of Class Plaintiffs' Case and the Risks and 21 Costs of Continuing Litigation

22 In evaluating a proposed class action settlement, courts consider the "strength 23 of plaintiffs' case" and risks of further litigation. In re Mego Fin Corp., 213 F.3d at 24 458. "This factor is generally satisfied when plaintiffs must overcome barriers to 25 make their case." Salazar v. Midwest Servicing Grp., Inc., CV 17-0137 PSG (KSx), 26 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172934, at *6 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 2, 2018) (citation omitted).

27 Based on their extensive investigation, record, and substantial discovery, Class 28

1 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe all the asserted claims have merit. However, 2 they recognize that continued litigation would expose the Class to the risk of no 3 recovery or a much lower recovery and would be expensive, complex, and protracted.
4 See, e.g., In re NetSol Techs., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 193924, at *25 (C.D. Cal. Jul.
5 1, 2016) (“Courts routinely recognize that securities class actions present hurdles to 6 proving liability that are difficult for plaintiffs to clear.”) (citation omitted); Schaffer
7 v. Litton Loan Servicing, LP, No. CV 05-07673 MMM (JCx), 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS
8 189830, at *39 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 13, 2012) (“Estimates of what constitutes a fair 9 settlement figure are tempered by factors such as the risk of losing at trial, the 10 expense of litigating the case, and the expected delay in recovery (often measured in 11 years).”).

12 Although Defendants’ motion to dismiss the Third Consolidated Amended 13 Class Action Complaint was denied, Class Plaintiffs would still be required to prove 14 that the alleged omissions were materially misleading. Class Plaintiffs acknowledge 15 that “[t]he propriety and materiality of alleged accounting manipulations that form 16 the basis of this lawsuit could be subject to differing interpretations by relevant 17 experts and would present difficult issues for the finder of fact.” In re Wireless
18 Facilities, Inc. Secs. Litig. II, 07-cv-482 NLS, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 128674, at *12
19 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 19, 2008). Further, Class Plaintiffs acknowledge that a reasonable 20 jury may not find in their favor with respect to the liability of the Underwriter 21 Defendants. ¶ 61. Class Plaintiffs and Class Counsel would be required to expend 22 significant time and expense in preparing the case for trial in light of these issues, 23 including possible summary judgment motion briefing. ¶¶ 60-62.

24 Likewise, damages would be disputed and Defendants would most likely argue 25 negative causation, a statutory defense to claims under Section 11 of the Securities 26 Act, possibly limiting recovery to the Class. ¶ 62; see Brown v. China Integrated 27 Energy Inc., CV 11-02559 BRO (PLAx), 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 186792, at *17 28

1 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 19, 2015) (defendant “would argue, based on expert testimony, that 2 any losses suffered by Plaintiffs were caused by external factors unrelated to 3 [defendant’s] alleged misrepresentations or omissions”). In such “battles of the 4 experts,” it is “virtually impossible to predict with any certainty which testimony 5 would be credited, and ultimately, which damages would be found to have been 6 caused by actionable, rather than the myriad nonactionable factors such as general 7 market conditions.” In re Warner Comm. Sec. Litig., 187 F.R.D. 465, 477 (S.D.N.Y.
8 1985), aff’d, 798 F.2d 35 (2d Cir. 1986); see also In re Celera Corp. Sec. Litig., No.
9 5:10-cv-02604-EJD, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 157408, at *17 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 20, 10 2015) (considering risk of “battle of the experts” in granting final settlement 11 approval).

12 b. The Risks of Maintaining a Class Action Through Trial

13 At the time Settlement was reached, Defendants’ interlocutory appeal of this 14 Court’s class certification order pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(f) was 15 pending before the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. ¶ 39. While 16 Class Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe they would prevail on this petition and/or 17 an appeal if allowed, they recognize the risk that an unsuccessful ruling from the 18 Ninth Circuit could result in decertification of all or part of the Class.

19 Further, an “order that grants or denies class certification may be altered or 20 amended before the final judgment” under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 21 23(c)(1)(C). Accordingly, the risks and uncertainty with respect to continuing class 22 action status supports approval of the Settlement. See Beaver v Tarsadia Hotels, 11-23 cv-01842-GPC-KSC, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160214, at *14 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 28, 24 2017) (“The value of a class action ‘depends largely on the certification of the class,’ 25 and . . . class certification undeniably represents a serious risk for plaintiffs in any 26 class action lawsuit.”) (quoting Acosta v. Trans Union, LLC, 243 F.R.D. 377, 392 27 (C.D. Cal. 2007)); Nextel Retail Stores, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 43377 at *46.

28

1 c. The Amount Offered in the Settlement

2 “As the Ninth Circuit has noted, ‘it is the very uncertainty of outcome in 3 litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual 4 settlements. The proposed settlement is [thus] not to be judged against a hypothetical 5 or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.’ 6 Rather, ‘the very essence of a settlement is a compromise, a yielding of absolutes and 7 an abandoning of highest hopes.’” In re Toys “R” Us-Del., Inc. Fair & Accurate
8 Credit Transactions Act Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 453 (C.D. Cal. 2014) (quoting 9 Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 624-25) (alteration and emphasis in original).
10 Further, “[i]t is well-settled law that a cash settlement amounting to only a fraction of 11 the potential recovery does not per se render the settlement inadequate or unfair.”
12 Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 628.

13 To assess the adequacy of a recovery, courts generally compare the settlement 14 amount with “estimates of the maximum amount of damages recoverable in a 15 successful litigation” while also considering the risks and uncertainties of the case. In 16 re Mego Fin. Corp., 213 F.3d at 459; In re Toys “R” Us, 295 F.R.D. at 453 17 (“Estimates of a fair settlement figure are tempered by factors such as the risk of 18 losing at trial, the expense of litigating the case, and the expected delay in recovery 19 (often measured in years”).

20 Here, in consultation with their experts, Class Plaintiffs estimate that if they 21 prevailed on all of their claims based upon the class as currently constituted, the 22 maximum recovery would be $114.6 million, assuming that the entirety of the stock 23 price decline could be attributable to Defendants’ misrepresentations and omissions 24 (and could be considerably less if Defendants prevailed on their negative causation 25 defense). ¶¶ 7, 63. Further, Class Plaintiffs estimate that if Defendants prevailed on 26 their petition for interlocutory appeal under Rule 23(f), and the class was restricted to 27 exclude purchasers after August 7, 2016, the maximum recovery would be $39.4 28

1 million. Id.

2 As this Court preliminarily determined, this recovery of between 10.5% and 3 30.5% of the possible maximum damages “is a reasonable level of compensation.” 4 ECF No. 177 at 8. Even the lower recovery estimate of 10.5% exceeds the annual 5 median securities class action settlement for each year between 2007 and 2016 which 6 ranged between 1.8% and 2.8% of estimated damages², and the median settlement of 7 8.0% of statutory damages for Section 11 and/or 12(a)(2) only cases for 2018.³
8 Courts have routinely approved settlements with similar or lower percentage 9 recoveries. See, e.g., In re Biolase, Inc. Sec, Litig., No. SACV 13-1300-JLS (FFMx), 10 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 189232, at *22-23 (C.D. Cal. June 5, 2015) (finding recovery 11 of 8% of maximum recoverable damages a “substantial benefit to the class” noting it 12 “equals or surpasses the recovery in many other securities class actions” and 13 collecting cases); In re Cendant Corp. Litig., 264 F.3d 201, 240 (3d Cir. 2001) 14 (typical recoveries for securities class actions range from 1.6% to 14% of total 15 losses). And, as discussed below, no Class member has objected to the sufficiency of 16 the settlement amount. Accordingly, the amount of the Settlement weighs in favor of 17 final approval.

18 d. The Extent of Discovery Completed and the Stage of the 19 Proceedings

20 The stage of the proceedings and extent of discovery completed supports final 21 approval of the settlement. The purpose of this consideration is to ensure that “the 22 parties [had] sufficient information to make an informed decision about settlement.”

7 which Class Plaintiffs, inter alia: (1) conducted a detailed investigation of the claims, 8 including a review of all relevant public filings and publicly-available information 9 and a private investigation involving interviews with confidential witnesses; (2) 10 extensive motion practice, successfully opposing Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss the 11 Third Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint and partially succeeding in 12 opposing Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss the Consolidated Amended Class Action 13 Complaint; (3) successfully briefing the Motion for Class Certification; (4) extensive 14 discussions and conferences with defense counsel and third parties as to the scope of 15 discovery requests; (5) review and analysis of over 140,000 pages of documents

7 negotiations, and the arm’s-length negotiations were supervised by an experienced

27 28 ⁴ The opt-out/exclusion deadline is April 15, 2019. If any Class Member opts out or seeks exclusion prior to that deadline, Class Plaintiffs will advise the Court.

5 3. The Relief Provided for the Class is Adequate and Treats
6 Class Members Equitably

7 Rule 23(e), as amended, lists four factors for courts to consider in determining 8 whether the relief provided for the class is adequate: “(i) the costs, risks, and delay of 9 trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to 10 the class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of 11 any proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any 12 agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3).” The proposed Settlement 13 satisfies each of these factors and is therefore adequate.

14 The first two factors are thoroughly addressed elsewhere in this memorandum.
15 Sections V.B.2.a. and V.B.2.b. address the potential costs, risks and delay of trial and 16 appeal. Section IV. describes the extensive plan of notice implemented in this case, 17 which this Court preliminarily determined to be appropriate. See ECF No. 177.
18 Additionally, as discussed in Section VI. below, the Plan of Allocation treats all Class 19 Members equitably.

20 The proposed fee award is discussed in the accompanying Motion for 21 Attorneys’ Fees, which demonstrates that Class Counsel’s request for a benchmark 22 25% is fair and reasonable. Finally, with respect to the identification of agreements 23 pursuant to Rule 23(e)(3), the Stipulation noted that the parties have entered into a 24 Supplemental Agreement, as is the standard practice in securities fraud class action 25 settlements. See Stipulation at Section X.H. The Supplemental Agreement provides 26 Defendants with the option to terminate the Settlement if a certain percentage of 27 damaged NantKwest securities request exclusion from the Settlement Class. Id. To 28 protect the Class, the Supplemental Agreement is confidential. See In re Online

4 the risk that one or more shareholders might use this knowledge to insist on a higher 5 payout for themselves by threatening to break up the Settlement””) (citation omitted);

8 VI. THE PLAN OF ALLOCATION IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

9 Class Plaintiffs also seek final approval of the Plan of Allocation described in 10 Class Notice. See Segura Decl. at Ex. A, at 4-6. A plan of allocation should be 11 approved where it is “fair, reasonable, and adequate.” Class Plaintiffs v. City of 12 Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1284-85 (9th Cir. 1992)); see also Omnitvision., 559 F. Supp.
13 2d at 1045. A plan of allocation “need only have a reasonable, rational basis, 14 particularly if recommended by experienced and competent counsel.” Heritage, 2005 15 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 13555, at *38. “A plan of allocation that reimburses class members 16 based on the extent of their injuries is generally reasonable It is also reasonable 17 to allocate more of the settlement to class members with stronger claims on the 18 merits.” In re Oracle Sec. Litig., No. C-90-0931-VRW, 1994 WL 502054, at *1 19 (N.D. Cal. June 18, 1994); Omnitvision, 559 F. Supp. 2d at 1045 (“It is reasonable to 20 allocate the settlement funds to class members based on the extent of their injuries or 21 the strength of their claims on the merits.”).

22 The Plan of Allocation here meets this standard. Class Counsel developed the 23 Plan of Allocation in consultation with an independent expert with the goal of 24 distributing the Net Settlement Fund to eligible Class Members in a fair and 25 reasonable manner. ¶¶ 9, 66. Specifically, the Plan of Allocation calculates a 26 “Recognized Loss” amount for each Class Member which depends on several factors, 27 including when the stock was sold and the purchase and sale prices. ¶ 67. The Net 28

1 Settlement Fund will be allocated to eligible claimants on a pro rata basis based on 2 the relative size of their Recognized Claims. Id.

3 Class Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that the proposed Plan of Allocation
4 will result in a fair and equitable distribution of the Settlement proceeds among Class 5 Members who suffered losses as a result of the conduct alleged in the Action similar 6 to any result if Plaintiffs were successful at trial. ¶ 66. Moreover, as of April 2, 7 2019, after 25,375 copies of the Notice containing the Plan of Allocation and 8 advising Class Members of their right to object to the Plan of Allocation if they wish 9 to do so were mailed to potential Class Members, no objections have been received.
10 Segura Decl. at ¶¶ 11, 16, 18. For all of these reasons, Class Plaintiffs respectfully 11 request that the Court approve the proposed Plan of Allocation.

12 VII. CONCLUSION

13 Based on the foregoing reasons, Class Plaintiffs respectfully request that the 14 Court grant final approval of the Settlement and Plan of Allocation, and enter the 15 [Proposed] Judgment and Order Granting Final Approval of Class Action 16 Settlement filed herewith (the form of which is attached as Exhibit C to the 17 Stipulation), and the proposed Order approving the Plan of Allocation, submitted 18 herewith.
